

Mission Statement

C D C D

Am D Am D
I punched the clock in at 35, I thank the Lord that I'm still alive
Am D Am

Sometimes I find it hard to believe that my heart's still beating that I'm still on my feet

C B Bb Am
I'm gonna give you, gonna give you a mission statement

C B Bb Am
I'm gonna give you, gonna give you a mission statement

D Am D
I've been in a downward spiral for a very long, long time
Am D Am D

Am D Am D
I've been stepping over dollars just to pick up a shiny dime
Am D Am D

C B Bb Am
The way I see it, it ain't gonna work, I'm kissing the past goodbye
I'm gonna give you, gonna give you a mission statement

G D A G D A
I got no more patience, I got no more time
G D A E
I'm tired of following orders, sticking to the company line

A G F#m E
I want to change the world and I'm starting with myself

A G F#m E
A private revelation concerning everybody else

C G
We're all just lonely people, we're all looking for some help
Am E

C G
We're too busy crunching numbers and fighting for ourselves

C G
All it takes is kindness and a little love and care
Am E

Am
And this planet that we live on can be a heaven we can share, a mission statement

D C D
All right, now listen

Am D Am D
The tears of hungry children, well, they're falling in the dust
Am D Am

D
The scraps of a rich man's table, well, they could fill their starving mouths

Am D Am D
While some they thirst for water, others get drunk on wine
Am D Am D

C B Bb Am
To some their life's a prison and they're out there doing time

C B Bb Am
Gonna give you, gonna give you a mission statement

C B Bb Am
I'm gonna give you, gonna give you a mission statement

G D A G D A
I got no more patience, got no more time
G D A E
I'm tired of following orders, sticking to the company line
A G F#m E
I want to change the world and I'm starting with myself
A G F#m E
A private revelation concerning everybody else,
C G
We're all just lonely people, we're all looking for some help

Too busy crunching numbers and fighting for ourselves
C G
All it takes is kindness and a little love and care
Am E Am
And this planet that we live on can be a heaven we can share, a mission statement

This is a mission statement, alright, alright

Listen, why don't you listen to my mission statement?

"Have you ever felt the rain before it falls?

Have you ever sensed the storm before it arrived on your horizon?

I don't think so!"
