

Old Haunts

Dm9

I found a home in the darkness,

/C

found a home in the darkness, found a home in the darkness,
Empty stomach empty head a body fills a vacant bed, and the thunder rolls by, and the rains come, and the days gone and I wonder where I am.

/D

/C

Found a place in the darkness, found a home in the darkness, in the darkness, home, in the darkness.

A crowded room of passers by and in the shadows strangers cry, and the ghosts try to hide,

/D

when the rains come, when the storms form, when I wonder who I am in the darkness, Home.

Digging Deep.

Dno3rd C6/D

Dno3rd

Digging deep in the darkness, digging it deep down deep down deep down digging it

C6/D

Deep in the darkness, digging it deep, down deep, down, deep down digging it

Dno3rd

Deep in the darkness, digging it deep, down, down, down, down, digging it
C6

Deep in the darkness, digging it down, deep down, deep, down deep digging it

Dno3rd

We watched an insect stray to the edge of it's world,

C6/D

a lily pad stretched over a green mirror

Dno3rd

in which the ghost carp swirl like clouds before a storm.

C6/D

This is the season of the rains,

This is incoming.

Gsus4/C

Bb/C

And when it came their was no cover, no place to hide,

Gsus4/C

Bb/C

vision blurred, hard to breathe, trying hard to hold onto something that's real.

Gsus4/C

Bb/C

Nothing left, nowhere to go, no open road it's washed away by swollen streams,

Gsus4/C Bb/C
carried off downriver with all my broken dreams.

Dno3rd

Digging deep in the darkness, digging it deep down deep down deep down digging it

C6/D

Deep in the darkness, digging it deep, down deep, down, deep down digging it

Dno3rd

Deep in the darkness, digging it deep, down, down, down, down, digging it C6

Deep in the darkness, digging it down, deep down, deep, down deep digging it

Dno3rd

C6/D

A tethered goat bleats from the corner of the graveyard where the lizards hang motionless as the angels

Dno3rd

C6/D

of stone above them, their broken wings throwing long shadows into the grass where the scorpions hide.

The tigers are running out of jungle.

Gsus4/C Bb/C (4x)

Dm C/E Dm/F Dm Am Dm (2x)

Gsus4/C Bb/C (2x)

Dno3rd

Digging deep in the darkness, digging it deep down deep down deep down digging it

C6/D

Deep in the darkness, digging it deep, down deep, down, deep down digging it

Dno3rd

Deep in the darkness, digging it deep, down, down, down, down, digging it C6

Deep in the darkness, digging it down, deep down, deep, down deep digging it

Gsus4/C

Bb/C

In the end I was tired of being asked if I could say that I was Happy Now,

Gsus4/C

Bb/C

as if you need me to convince you that everything's OK.

Am

Would you take me back?

Am Fj7/A G (repeat)

Are you happy now? You keep asking, asking am I happy now?

Why can't you tell me that I'm happy now? Are you happy now?

Happy now? Happy now?

Dm

Chocolate Frogs

Dm

The bloated corpses of unsolved murders and old revolutions, pirouette and dance amongst the swirls and eddies in their final procession down the muddy river to the delta where they're thrown up by the surf onto sterile beaches or are trapped in the roots of mangrove cathedrals of the islands that gather in the bay.

These are the first arrivals on this new horizon that will be coveted by strangers who will deposit themselves on these shores to build towers to the heavens. The storm will come and the rains will fall and remove their dreams and hopes once again to the waters that surround them. And while they pray the frogs will chant in the darkness

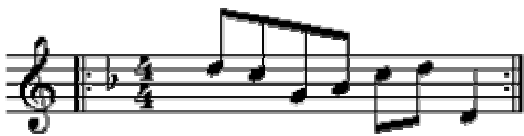

A heid full of chocolate frogs, a body full of rush, a pocketful of shrapnel and a skinfull of bush, an eyefull of the future and a belly full of the past, how beautiful the present when you know it cannae last.

A tumblerful of voddie, two fingers in a glass, a handful of promises, a heart full of remorse, mindful of your manners when you're brought down to your knees, a heid full of chocolate frogs is all you gave to me, That's all you gave to me, that's all you gave to me,

A spoonful of miracles a nostril full of dust a lung full of Virginia the needs we have we must, a pill to put your heart right a nose out for a deal for a heid full of chocolate frogs what can you give to me?

Bb (seque waving at stars)

What did you give to me?

What did you give to me?
What did you give to me?

Dm

Waving At Stars

Dsus2 Bbsus2 Dsus2
Dsus4

You cracked up too soon
Before the punchline hit home
And at the end of the joke
Did you notice that no one
 Bbsus2
Was laughing with you
 Dsus2
You were out on your own
 Dsus2
Waving at trains, waving at cars
 Bbsus2
Waving from bars, waving from aeroplanes
 Dsus2
Might as well be waving at stars
 Dsus2
You called out her name
As the darkness hit home
Raised up your Zippo
And opened the skies
 Bbsus2
Till the cloud melts away
At the end of the day
 Dsus2
You ran out of light
 Bbsus2
Praying for rain, praying for signs
 Csus2
Praying for time, praying for endless night
 Dsus2
You might as well be wishing on stars

(segue to Rain gods Dancing:)
Dm G Bb Dm G Bb Bb7

Rain gods Dancing

Piano intro:

The piano introduction consists of four staves of music in 4/4 time, featuring a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The chords are: Dm (Staff 1), Bb (Staff 2), C (Staff 3), and Dm (Staff 4).

Dm Bb
Empty churches, empty pews, in the subway nothing moves
C
And the static on the radio is drowning out the sound
Dm
Of rain gods dancing
Dm
Empty playgrounds, empty bars, I can't remember
Bb
How it was before the flood, when all I had to do was
C
Simply recognise
Dm
The love that's trapped inside
Dm
I gave it all, I took it back and in the end
Bb
There nothing left except the a shell surrounding
C
Emptiness and loneliness, a core of pain
Dm
I see my pathway shining
Am Fj7
Rain gods with Zippos
Am Fj7
A tin man hides a broken heart
Am Fj7
Rain gods with Zippos
Am Fj7

Fj7/G

He knows, the flame has gone, that soon he'll fall apart
(I'll fall apart)
[Guitar solo]
Dm Bb C Dm (2x)
Dm
So I lay me down to lie
Bb
With the rain my lullaby
I drift away to dreamless sleep
C

Leave behind a life that died
 Dm
 A victim of a plague of ghosts
 Dm
 I was wrapped up in my guilt
 Bb
 Buried deep within my memories
 A shelter of self-pity that I know
 C
 The rain will wash away
 Dm
 I sense the storm arriving
 Am Fj7
 Rain gods with Zippos
 Am Fj7
 A tin man rusts away, and slowly falls apart
 Am Fj7
 Rain gods with Zippos
 Am Fj7
 And all he leaves behind a bleeding broken heart

Wake-up Call

Dm G Dm G Dm G
 A A7/G A+/F A/E
 Dm G
 And in the end, I found beginnings
 Dm G
 Not a vision, a wake up call
 Dm G
 Raised from the dead by a beating heart
 A A7/G A+/F
 And at last I can see it all
 A/E Dm G
 And my eyes were opened to the darkness
 Dm G
 In my hand a burning flame
 Dm G
 A spark of life to touch the fuse
 A A7/G A+/F
 And blow these clouds away
 A/E Dm G
 I can make it happen, if I want to
 Dm G
 Make it happen, if I try
 Dm G A A7/G
 Forgive, forget, forever never means as much
 A+/F A/E
 As it does today
 Dm G
 Make it happen
 Dm G
 We can make it happen
 Dm G
 We can make it happen
 A A7/G A+/F A/E
 Dm G
 When I wake up, will you be there?

Dm G
 It can never be the same
 Dm
 If we can take our live slowly
 G A A7/G A+/F A/E
 Step by step we can be dancing in the rain
 Dm G
 We can make it happen
 Dm G
 We can make it happen
 Dm G
 Make it happen
 A A7/G A+/F A/E Dm G
 Forgive, forget, forever means today
 Dm G
 Make it happen
 Dm G
 We can make it happen
 Dm G
 We can make it happen
 A A7/G A+/F A/E Dm
 Forgive, forget, forever means today