With this right of passage, cruel twist of fate, with every turn of every card I never see,

E A/C# E
until it's too late, the deed is done and leaves me wondering just where our love has gone

E A/C# E
I cannot say in honest truth that I still trust all my feelings for you.

C#m B/D# E
You knew that it was wrong,

A E/G# A Bsus4
You think that saying sorry is gonna make it seem alright,

C#m B/D# E A E
Maybe in this song you will hear me for the first time

C#m B and you'll start to see the light.

E A/C# E
Living with you is like being parked on double yellow lines waiting to be towed away,

E A/C# E
I'll pay the fines and I'll be back, but I'm running out of reasons to stay.

C#m B/D# E
You knew that it was wrong,

A E/G# A Bsus4
You think that saying sorry is gonna make it seem alright,

C#m B/D# E A E
Maybe in this song you will hear me for the first time

C#m B and you'll start to see the light.

E B/E A C#m B
 A E B C#sus4 Cm A E

C#m B/D# E
 You knew that it was wrong,

A E/G# A Bsus4
 You think that saying sorry is gonna make it seem alright,

 With this right of passage I reclaim my heart,

A/C# E
 I take my leave, as if on cue, I play no further part

E
 in your self-penned dramas,
 where each stolen kiss

A E
 just goes to prove that happy endings don't exist.
