

Lady Let It Lie

Capo on 3rd fret

Em C Em C

You should have listened to what <sup>Em</sup> your mother said
You should have listened to what your father told you to do
But you <sup>C</sup> always did just what you always wanted to do
Now you <sup>Em</sup> end up here singing in a gilded cage
And for half your life you were wishing you were half your age
Lady <sup>Em</sup> let it lie, lady <sup>C</sup> let it lie

It's hard <sup>Em</sup> putting down family roots when you're living in a mobile home
But there's <sup>C</sup> always blood even in a rolling stone
And you <sup>Em</sup> squeezed me hard for the white collar dream
But you <sup>C</sup> woke up to a tie-dye lifestyle and it's choking me

I don't want to be me no more
<sup>G</sup> All the boys want to be all the <sup>Am7</sup> girls in this <sup>G</sup> turnaround world
I don't want to be me no more
Lady <sup>Em</sup> let it lie, please, lady <sup>C</sup> let it lie

They once <sup>Em</sup> said I was a rising star, declaring me a bright contender
But when it <sup>C</sup> all worked out I was just a young pretender
I could never <sup>Em</sup> disagree if you said you were dissatisfied
Why you got to <sup>C</sup> take it out on a guy that tried?

<sup>G</sup> All the boys want to be all the <sup>Am7</sup> girls want to be all the <sup>G</sup> boys
I don't want to be me no more
I don't want to be me no more

F Bb F Bb G Am7 G C Em C

Em
Maybe there's something left, something worth fighting for
C
Something out of all this mess that's worth building on
Em
Maybe we can start again, maybe give it one more try
Do we just walk away, maybe let it fade and die?
