She put her mind to the classroom but outside she learned more from giving head

She gave her innocence to someone that she once considered a close friend

She gave her hand to the quarterback on loan to the local football team

He gave his world as security, his heart as deposit on the dream

But she wants to wear suits

She's got a wedding ring that's Cartier as far as you can tell

She threw it down the local wishing well

She'd lost it in the kitchen sink or in a desert motel room

The insurance claim just couldn't come too soon

She wants to be somebody, be somebody, be somebody, somebody special

Do you want to be somebody, be somebody, be somebody, somebody special

She wants to wear suits (somebody special)

Could you be somebody, be somebody, be somebody?

Could you be somebody, be somebody, be somebody?

Somebody special? Special

Could you be somebody special? (somebody special)

Could you be somebody, be somebody, be somebody?

Could you be somebody, be somebody, be somebody special?

Do you wanna be? (Do you wanna be?) Do you wanna be? Do you wanna be somebody special?

Do you wanna be? Do you wanna be?
