

Big Wedge

Em7 A Em7 A Em7

I found a new religion yesterday
I'd just cleared immigration JFK
A priest got in a cadillac
The shoeshine boy sang gospel
As God and his accountants drove away
You'll see him coast to coast on live TV
In a stadium rocked by Satan just the night before
The collection from the faithful it is tax-free
It'll pay for his presidential campaign and his yacht

And we all bow down, we bow down to the big wedge
And we'll buy ourselves some heaven here on earth
We sell our souls, we sell our souls for big wedge
Are we selling out tomorrow for today?

The surgeon checks your plastic on the phone
A Casio concerto entertains you while you hold
Your credit rating's good for a Madonna or a Bardot
A Dali or a Picasso for his wall

You're looking good, you're looking good with big wedge
Are you holding back tomorrow for today?
They're driving in, driving in the big wedge
Are we selling out tomorrow for today?

You'll sell the ground beneath your feet
You'll sell your oil, you'll sell your trees
Your ideals and integrity, your culture and your history
Your children into slavery to labour in their factories

Am Fmaj7
Your mother and your family
Am6 A7
You'll sell the world eventually

Em7 A Em7 A Em7

D F#m E
The IMF and CIA; there's just no difference they're all the same
D F#m E
It all depends on what's your point of view

A A/C# D E
America, America the big wedge
D A E
And they're buying your tomorrow up today
A A/C# D E
With promises, the promises of big wedge
D A E
And they'll break them like your hearts another day
A D E
When you find out that you've left it just too late
D A E
And you find that you're the only one to blame
A D E D A
That you sold out your tomorrow yesterday for big Wedge (big wedge)
E
You sold out for the big wedge (big wedge, big wedge)
A D E
For the big wedge, for the big wedge
A D E
They're driving in, they're driving in the big wedge
A D E
They're driving in, they're driving in the big wedge
A D
I'm talking about the big wedge
E
I'm talking about the big wedge
A D
I'm talking about the big wedge
E
Talking about the big wedge
A D E
They're driving in, they're driving in the big wedge

A/C#: 042220